

Gen. Beauregard's Proclamation.
HEADQUARTERS, DEPT. OF ALEXANDRIA,
CAMP PETERS, JUNE 25th.

A Proclamation to the Good People of the Counties of Loudoun, Fairfax, and Prince William:

A reckless and unprincipled agent has invaded your soil. Abraham Lincoln, regardless of all moral, legal, and constitutional restraints, has thrown his position destroying your property, and committing other acts of violence and outrage, too shocking and revolting to be described.

In the name, therefore, of the constitutional authorities of the Confederate States—the sacred cause of constitutional liberty and self-government, for which we are united in—In behalf of civilization and humanity, I call I, E. J. BRANCH, comprising at Camp P. 1st, Manassas Junction, do make this my proclamation, and invite and advise you to accept the same.

understand that to the hearts of freemen and patriots by the name and memory of your Revolutionary fathers, and by the unity and sanctity of your domestic firesides, to rally to the defense of your State and country; and by every force in your power, resistively to repulse any invader, to drive back and expel the invaders from your land. I beseech you to be true and loyal to your country and her legal and constituted authorities, and especially to be vigilant of the movements and acts of the enemy, so as to enable you to give the earliest authentic information at these

His misdeeds were small.

But when Meland's Ciesar Messel, a private in Company B was accidentally shot. He proved the muzzle of the rifle was for a rest for his hand, when it was discharged, killing him almost instantly.

Important from Alexandria - More Dead Federal Troops.

We were shown this morning a letter from a prominent merchant residing in Alexandria, in which he stated that a few nights since he quit his home in the city of Springfield, a law . . . from the dinner place, in which a large number of Federal troops were present. The incident would give further weight brought into Alexandria's death, and a larger number.

Scrumphorne of nightily occurrence, in which numbers of black troops are killed and wounded in the Vietnam front.

The existing state of affairs in Alexandria, and the surrounding counties has been a source of concern among the inhabitants. People are difficult lost their stock and their lives and they and made their escape, to avoid punishment from the troops.

Outbreaks of various kinds occur daily. (Cuzco, what few men left are harassed and frequently killed.) The stores are broken open and pilloaged, and there is no security for life or property.

The troops move everywhere into the country for sales, arson, and appropriate plunder. The city is being looted, and in place of the few huile and maize which remain, there is the appearance of a vast desert, being stripped of every thing available.

The celebrated Zambos are in full glory, and three-fourths of them are collectively in a state of festal intoxication.

Great disinclination exists among the troops and large numbers are ripe for a revolt. (Balthasar Bonavina.)

and Clark Watson were presented, charged with being drunk and disorderly. This woman Lina Moore kept one of the lowest class of houses in the community.

A HUSBAND—Miss Williams, a daughter of Isaac Williams, living in Black River Swamp, about seven miles from this place, was the first to hear of the abduction. She came to this place on Sunday evening. Her father was not at home, and she immediately caught a horse, and was soon off in search of her husband. She called at a neighbor's house, and told him to hurry on horse and get his gun and come here and help to his lead all into bullets, took the gun, powder and bullets, and hid them under the bureau and again got on the horse and rode hence, and again, for the horse had gone to several homes, and spread the alarm, returning home in time to give the old man his gun and ammunition, and started him with a crowd of ten men, whom she had collected, to the scene, where she hid. All of this she did in less than two hours. Such acts of heroism should not be passed by without notice.—(Poenhomas (Ark.) Advertiser.

A word about the forces or their movements. The order, it is said, was given in his presence to shoot any correspondent that could be caught who had been guilty, in Col. Stone's opinion, of giving such information. At last accounts the Philadelphia was a wreck camp follower.— Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

Webb again presented himself, and Gen. Sinford sent for a wagon at his own expense, into which the three men were place and sent back to Virginia, to the entire satisfaction of their Secession master. This act on Gen. Seward's part has given rise to much comment to-day, and he gets very little credit in any quarter save among the rebel slave-owners over the river.—(Cor. N. Y. Times.)
